

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Their cynical decision to force affiliates to show this commercial in prime time is perceived by my friends and family as a criminal act bordering on corporate fascism.

I want to see a determined FCC use its oversight quickly and decisively to prevent this illegal action by Sinclair. Thank you.
